SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

SUBJECT: Present whereabouts of Eugen DOLLMANN.

1. The information in this report was submitted by OO 503.

2. In November 1951 SOURCE submitted information concerning DOLLMANN, the former Chief of the German Intelligence in ITALY during World War II, in which it was disclosed that DOLLMANN was living in SWITZERLAND, in the city of JAMNICH, on Via Zervio 72D. The SOURCE also disclosed that DOLLMANN was in possession of an Italian passport under the name of "Eugenio" AMENI. The passport had been issued to DOLLMANN thru the intervention of the Italian Navy for whom SUBJECT had been of signal service, having been responsible for the entry into ITALY of two nuclear scientists who were allegedly conducting experiments in heavy water at the Italian naval base of La Spezia (See 8-700-1043 dated 27 November 1951 and 8-700-1228 dated 13 March 1952, SUBJECT: Eugen DOLLMANN).

3. SOURCE now discloses the details in connection with DOLLMANN's expulsion from SWITZERLAND and his present whereabouts.

4. When the Italians had exhausted the possibility of DOLLMANN being of further use to them, from an informative point of view, the Italian G.S. (Centro-Spionaggio, Counter Espionage) was requested to revoke DOLLMANN's Italian passport, under the pretense of needing it. DOLLMANN realizing that the passport would never be returned, had it photographed before releasing it. When the Swiss Authorities (Bundes Polizei), who had tacitly tolerated the presence of DOLLMANN in JAMNICH, up to the time he was furnished with a passport, when they learned that he no longer was in possession of it they promptly proceeded to expell him from the Swiss territory. Since DOLLMANN (AMENI) figured as an Italian citizen, because of the photograph of the passport, the Italians were forced to accept him as such.

5. The Italian G.S. took DOLLMANN in custody when he was escorted to the Italo-Swiss frontier city of Chiasso and was taken to the "Convento Angelicum" (Angelicum Convent) on Piazza Sant'Angelo #2, Milano, directed by the Franciscan Father Superior ZUCCA, Enrico (Padre Marco F.O.M.). After a stay of about 10 days at the convent, he was very ably escorted by a Franciscan Brother (Father FARINI) to Barcelona, SPAIN, by ship, via Genoa, while furnished with an Italian passport.

6. After landing in Barcelona, DOLLMANN was sent to Madrid, where the Italian passport was taken away. Through the intervention of Captain Ivo GERSCHLIER, DOLLMANN made contact with G. SKORZENY (who headed the parashotist unit which rescued Benito MUSSOLINI in 1943). DOLLMANN is presently under the protection of SKORZENY.

7. DOLLMANN is still attempting to obtain an Italian passport. It is very doubtful that he will ever obtain a valid document.

8. According to SOURCE, DOLLMANN has indicated his intention to write a book of memoirs intitled "Un eroe vile" (A Vile Hero). SUBJECT still boasts of his friendship with Fieldmarshal KESSELING, who is said to have recently spoken favorably of DOLLMANN.

AGENT'S NOTE: Father ZUCCA, the Father Superior of the "Angelicum Convent" was involved with the disinterment and the hiding of the body of MUSSOLINI.
